I own a Multi-Family Apartment Building, is this for me?

Let's face it, the tax code is very complicated, and you don't have time to keep up on every change. That's why you have invested in partnering with a brilliant accountant...so you can minimize and defer as much tax liability as possible while still running a profitable Multi-Family building!

Not only is this 'best kept secret' approved by the IRS, it is available to 95% of all multi-family and apartment owners who are subject to Federal and State Tax Laws.

The information we are about to share with you can kick open the doors to tens of thousands, hundreds of thousands, or even millions of dollars in tax deferrals and savings, depending on the number and type of Multi-Family/Apartment properties you hold! This is above and beyond the services you receive from your CPA firm.

This 'best kept secret in the U. S. Tax Code' is called: Cost Segregation.

(also known as 'Accelerated Depreciation' or 'Cost Seg' for short).

Owners of Multi-Family and Apartment properties can now legally redirect their Federal and State tax dollars back to their business. The alternative is to give your money to Uncle Sam to be managed...which may not prove to be your best investment.

Cost Segregation is available to taxpayers with real estate holdings of $500,000 or more.

What is Cost Segregation?

Cost Seg is the most accurate and correct method to depreciate any Multi-Family/Apartment building for those planning on holding their property for at least 4 or 5 years.

This IRS approved tax strategy allows property owners like you to increase your cash flow and decrease your tax liability by frontloading depreciation deductions into the early years of building ownership, thus capitalizing on the time value of your money.

A deduction now is always worth more than that same deduction years later.

Cost Segregation is the process of identifying, separating, and reclassifying qualified assets in your Multi-Family / Apartment Building from 27.5-year class lives to much shorter 5, 7, and 15-year class lives.

Why do Cost Seg on my Multi-Family Apartment?

A Cost Seg Study on your Multi-Family building will dramatically increase your cash flow by reducing and deferring tax liability. If your tax payments go down...cash flow goes up...way up! This is now cash in your pocket to use however you want. Many of our clients utilize Cost Seg to grow their Multi-Family/Apartment Building portfolios in conjunction with 1031 exchanges...although a 1031 exchange is not needed to utilize the benefits of Cost Segregation.

How much money can Cost Seg really save me?

In general, a Cost Segregation Study can yield a tax savings of 10%-12% of the cost of any given Multi-Family property. A one-million-dollar Apartment Building could yield a tax benefit of $100,000 or more in just the first 5 years.

Can my CPA do a Cost Seg Study for me?

A proper Cost Segregation Study is a complex combination of tax law and engineering principles.

Most accounting firms do not specialize in this area. This is exactly why our firm works so closely with your tax advisor to make the final application of a study a turn key solution for you, the taxpayer.

Our firm is approved by the IRS to perform Cost Segregation Studies nationwide. Our approach is engineer based...yielding the greatest tax benefits available to Multi-Family owners.

A completed Cost Seg Study does not replace the important role an accountant plays in preparing tax documentation or determining tax liability.

Why isn't every Multi-Family owner utilizing Cost Seg?

The cover page of this guide shows just a few of the testimonials of property owners who have actually completed Cost Segregation Studies on their commercial buildings.

Taxpayers who already know about Cost Seg are effectively utilizing it to defer tax payments and save massive amounts of cash!

For those who skipped right to the end:

Cost Segregation is too important of a tax strategy for you to not be utilizing...or at least considering.

Think of the benefits of Cost Segregation this way: If you were given a check for a million dollars and had the option to either cash it now or wait and cash it in 27 years, what would you do?

Most people would cash it now, because the time value of that money is worth more in today’s dollars versus what it will be worth 39 years from now.

By not doing a Cost Segregation Study, you are basically giving the IRS an interest free loan of money. This is money you could be using TODAY instead for your own benefit! You could pay down debt, purchase more property, invest it, make improvements, whatever you want...it is your money!

Tax payers who educate themselves on this tax strategy are saving every day and will benefit greatly!
